Kari moved to accept the report, Bill seconded, approved

Horse Shows:

- We will be setting a date for a Show Committee meeting soon to discuss and set 2022 Show Dates

Clinics:

- Ranch Horse Clinic: There were 7 participants. The clinic was originally scheduled for 2 days, but was changed to 1 day after several competing activities. We incurred a loss of $171.00 on the day, but it is felt that it was worth it for the educational value gained. Participants really liked having flag work in the morning before working with cattle in the afternoon. They stated that being able to stop and get correct positioning with the flag helped them know what to do when they practiced with the cattle.

Unfinished Business:

- no unfinished business

New Business:

- Open ride nights will continue on Mondays only, but participants need to let Brenda Berlin know if they are planning on attending since it is getting dark sooner.
- Awards Banquet
 - the county only has Dec 18th open for a banquet
 - There was discussion on possible alternatives for the banquet
 - Taylor moved to not hold an Awards ceremony this year but to get awards out to those who earned them then have a Kick-off/Jump-start party for the new season.
