Horse Shows:

• July Show:

o Show went well

- State Fair
 - o 13 youth represented Adams County and did very well
 - Some parents have asked about bringing back the written tests at our shows so that the kids have more practice with it. Brenda might be willing to organize that.
 - Rockets were launched near the arenas while kids were showing, very poor planning on State Fair's part
 - o Holly was impressed with how ADCO youth did at State Fair, especially in Ranch Horse
 - Brenda commented that the judging was lacking on RH day, especially with the cows
 - Kellie stated that there were issues with judging every day, it was not high quality
 - Stall location had some issues with the general public, gates were opened, too much hay given, feeding other things to horses. The parents kept a presence by the stalls until the fairgrounds closed each night
- Ranch horse show coming up September 18-19th
 - the entry link is up a
 - O Show bill is on the front page of the Rocky Mountain Quarter Horse page
 - Info not given to AQHA in time to make their publication
 - Darci asked whether or not we have a real gate, the judge at the last show stated that we needed a really working gate, not a rope. Brenda will follow up with that to clarify the AQHA rules. Kellie stated that due to Covid regulations, we may not be able to have a gate

Minutes revisited as quorum has been met

- o It will not be a 2 day clinic because we do not have adequate stalls
- The 2 clinics held before fair went very well.
 - o the RH clinic had 12 participants
 - o the Kenny Scott clinic had 9 participants
 - All disciplines were covered during the 2 clinics

Unfinished Business:
